

JBL L100 Classic 75

12-inch (300mm) 3-way Bookshelf Loudspeaker – Anniversary Edition

JBL

This Limited-Edition JBL L100 Classic loudspeaker package celebrates JBL's 75 years of iconic loudspeakers. The L100 Classic itself pays homage to the most legendary, highest volume JBL loudspeaker of all time: the L100 / L100 Century. And from its launch in 2018, the reborn L100 Classic has earned a legion of new fans to once again become a top seller.

The most immediately striking feature of the limited-edition L100 Classic 75 is a beautiful teak wood veneer finish that graces all sides of the loudspeaker enclosure. The wood finish is complemented by a black Quadrex foam grille accented with a gold and black JBL logo and a matching teak wood veneer frame. Anniversary edition badges are found on the front and rear of the loudspeaker including a commemorative plaque with the signature of the principal system engineer, Chris Hagen, as well as the individual pair number out of the total production run. Acoustically, the L100 Classic 75 features an improved woofer suspension design and a revised network to include bi-wire capabilities via a premium input cup with dual sets of gold plated binding posts. The L100 Classic 75 is sold as a matched pair system and includes a set of JS-120 floor stands. The entire system ships inside a specially-crafted wooden crate with limited edition artwork on the side panels. Production is limited to 750 pair worldwide.

The anniversary edition JBL L100 Classic 75 offers documented exclusivity, with a unique appearance and features only available once. The L100 Classic 75 is destined to become a collector's item among JBL fans around the world.
